United States Attorney Deborah Gilg and the Federal Bureau of Investigation announce the following information for the attention of the media:

Event Triggering this Release:

On November 19, 2010, Inessa Lyons, appeared before the Honorable Laurie Smith Camp, United States District Judge, and pleaded guilty to Voluntary Manslaughter and Assault with a Dangerous Weapon in connection with a double stabbing that occurred on the Omaha Indian Reservation in 2008. Lyons, though only 15 years old at the time of the stabbings, was transferred for adult prosecution by the District Court.

On July 2, 2008, two parties were taking place across the street from each other at the Tower Hill Apartments on the Omaha Indian Reservation in Macy, Nebraska. One party was taking place at number 57 Tower Hill. Another gathering was occurring at Unit 55 across the street. Both sides were trying to get the other to decrease the noise so the police would not be called. Inessa Lyons, (age 16 at the time and a Native American), retrieved a knife from the kitchen at Unit 55. A number of individuals tried to calm Inessa Lyons down and tried to convince her to put away the knife. An altercation ensued with Lyons punching two other females. Lyons lunged at one of the victims, a fifteen year old female, and stabbed her once in the left chest with the knife. The victim pulled out the knife and collapsed. Lyons then grabbed the knife from the ground and stabbed the other victim, (18 years old at the time), once in the neck and three times in the scalp. The fifteen year old's wounds proved fatal as the knife hit her left ventricle. She later died from her injuries. The 18 year old recovered from her injuries.

Sentencing is scheduled for February 14, 2011.
